Jérôme GUILBOT

London N1 9DX
Currently relocating to the US

email: j.guilbot@gmail.com
30 years old
portfolio: http://papydanone.free.fr/

Senior PHP/Symfony Developer
Team leader

Summary of qualifications

- Over seven years professional experience developing websites using the Symfony PHP framework
- Extensive knowledge of object oriented PHP, best practices and design patterns (MVC)
- Proficient in MySQL, able to engineer and optimize database schemas
- Well versed in Javascript, AJAX and new related technologies (Node.js, backbone.js, MongoDB)
- Rigorous use of version control, Git or SVN.
- Comfortable with server administration
- Experience in scaffolding and developing custom e-commerce solutions
- Ability to gather requirements, propose solutions and establish lasting relationships with clients
- Ability to lead small development teams

Recent work experience

December 2012 – May 2014   Lead Developer at Publicis London – London, United Kingdom

- Consolidated existing server infrastructure
- Established Git-based development workflow and continuous integration tools
- Trained team members and interns to various technologies
- Lead innovative projects using eclectic mix of technologies (see portfolio)

September 2009 – July 2012   Developer at Evolution7 – Melbourne, Australia

- Developed a variety of rich web applications based on the Symfony framework
- Engineered and implemented internal tools such as the CMS and the e-commerce platform.
- Developed http://www.drcotton.com.au, winner of the 2011 AIMIA award for best e-commerce
- Daily liaison with clients for requirements analysis and support
- Developer in charge of http://www.studymassage.com.au, Australia's leading Massage school. Managed weekly developments, innovations and deployments of a website used by more than 50K students
- Daily evangelizing of Symfony standards and best practices amongst fellow developers

November 2007 – April 2009   Lead PHP Developer at Makingideaswork! – New York City, United States

- Implemented a development/deployment solution based on the Symfony framework and a dedicated Linux server.
- Developed Javascript libraries designed for re-usability purposes. Use of AJAX and the Prototype framework.
- Set up, developed and customized e-commerce solutions
- Developed plugins and widgets for the Symfony framework.
- Mentored interns and junior developers

March – September 2007	LAMP developer at INFOTEL – Paris, France

- Developed of a web chat for PSA Peugeot Citroën. Use of caching and load balancing
- Designed and developed of a contact management system for the sales personnel.

June - December 2006	Freelance – Paris, France

- Developed a Performance Management software. Design and development of an intranet module for assessment of performance.
- Development of a twelve-modules suite part of a global management system of Performance and Excellency

Skills

Languages

- PHP
- HTML / CSS
- JavaScript / AJAX
- MySQL / MongoDB
- Python and C++ for Arduino scripting

Frameworks & other tools

- Symfony, Silex
- jQuery
- Node.js, express, socket.io
- Backbone.js
- Git, SVN
- Vagrant
- Amazon Web Services

Project-related skills

- Writing technical specifications and proposals
- Client support
- Database schemas
- Agile development
- Functional testing

Education

2004-2007
Master of Science at EFREI, a leading French engineering institute for technology and business applications.

2002-2004
Two-year College prep cycle in Multimedia Services and Networks, in a University Institute of Technology.

2001-2002
Baccalauréat S: equivalent to A-Levels in Mathematics.

Languages

English :
Fluent (Awarded the Business English Certificate Higher, scored 900 at the TOEIC and 8.5/9 at the IELTS). Comfortable to lead meetings, speak in front of large groups and write technical documentation.

French :
Mother tongue.

German :
Intermediate.